Born and raised in Omaha, Nebraska where I attended Bryan High School and excelled in the three sports of Baseball, Basketball, and Football. Baseball was my 1st love but football was a close 2nd where in my senior year of high school I participated in the Nebraska High School all star football game. I then continued my baseball career at Creighton University which is a private Jesuit school located in Omaha. I participated in baseball for 5 years at Creighton and graduated with a marketing degree in 2007. I then was drafted in the 24th round by the Texas Rangers in the 2007 draft where I have been given the privilege to chase my dream of playing in the major leagues. I just completed my 3rd year in the organization and have played at 3 different levels with the most recent being in Double A in Frisco, Texas. I enjoy hunting, fishing, and being in the outdoors during my free time. I also enjoy traveling especially to the northwest United States to visit family and friends in the state of Washington. God, Family, and friends are three things I cherish the most in my life.
