

Lee Roberts

After recording his best season in a Lion uniform in 2009, a year that saw him named to the All-West Coast Conference first team, Roberts signed a professional contract with the Kansas City Royals organization. In his first year with the Royals organization, Lee was promoted from the AZL Royals to the Appalachian Rookie League Burlington Royals. Overall, in 2009, Roberts had a 3-1 record with more strikeouts (26) than innings pitched (25.1). He also only walked 4 batters in his 2009 campaign.
