

Logan Parker

Logan Parker was born and raised in Odessa Texas by his proud parents Randy Parker and Karen Shelton. He attended New Mexico Junior College where he was a standout on and off the baseball field. Due to his wonderful season at NMJC he received a baseball scholarship to the University of Cincinnati. After his two years at UC he was drafted by the Cincinnati Reds in the 12th round. Logan takes great pride in the fact that he was able to finish all of his classes and earned a college degree from the University of Cincinnati. To this day, Logan makes his off season home in Cincinnati, but still calls Odessa his home.
